Pan African Television
Republic of Ghana

Congratulatory Message on the Occasion of the 10th Anniversary of Pan African Television

On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of Pan African Television, the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Republic of Ghana would like to express the warmest congratulations and best wishes to the comrades and audience of the station.

Over the past decade, Pan African TV has remained dedicated to professional, objective, and responsible journalism. By championing African perspectives and telling Africa's stories, it has made valuable contributions to the development of Ghana's media landscape, promoted dialogue and mutual understanding across Africa, and strengthened exchanges between Africa and the international community. As one of Ghana's leading media organizations, Pan African TV has earned wide recognition for its commitment to informing the public and fostering greater connectivity among nations and peoples.

China and Ghana enjoy a long-term traditional friendship. In recent years, the Strategic Partnership between China and Ghana has registered rapid development and yielded fruitful results in many areas. The Chinese side firmly supports Pan African TV in upholding the International fairness and justice including the promotion of Pan-Africanism. It is highly appreciated that Pan African TV has played an important role in serving as a bridge between our peoples, strengthening exchanges and cooperation with Chinese media institutions, and telling the stories of China-Ghana friendship and China-Africa cooperation in a comprehensive, objective and fair manner, thereby making great contributions to closer people-to-people ties.

The Chinese Embassy in Ghana would work closely with Pan African TV to further promote the historic friendly relationship between China and Ghana in the future. The Chinese Embassy is confident that through our joint efforts, media cooperation between China and Ghana will continue to flourish, contributing to the healthy and stable development of China-Ghana relations.

The Embassy of the People's Republic of China in the Republic of Ghana avails itself of this opportunity to renew to Pan African TV the assurances of its highest consideration.
